Thoughts from Vicki

Almost everyone has trouble making and sticking to a budget.

Unfortunately, budgeting is a very necessary part of planning for our financial future.

The article below shows a unique way to look at budgeting. I would be happy to discuss ideas to get you started on a budget plan that works for your life style.

A Joyful Way to Look at Spending

For most people the "B-Word" (budgeting) conjures up feelings of deprivation and self-denial. As such, when it comes to deciding how to allocate your hard-earned cash, I far prefer a concept I call "joy-based spending" to traditional budgeting.
